

History of Economics Society Annual Meeting

July 4-7, 2003 at Duke University

Final Program of Sessions

Friday July 4, 2003

HES Executive Committee Meeting: 3:00PM – 5:00PM

Room: West Duke 100

On Site Registration: 4:00PM – 6:00PM (continuing 8-11:30AM on Saturday)

Room: East Duke Parlor

Distinguished Guest Lecture: 6:00PM – 7:00PM

Chair: E. Roy Weintraub, Duke University

Room: White Lecture Hall

Ted Porter, UCLA

"The Culture of Quantification and the History of Public Reason"

Picnic Dinner: 7:00PM – 8:30PM

Place: East Duke Porch and Lawn

Fee event

Saturday July 5, 2003

Session 1: 8:30AM – 9:45 AM, Saturday July 5

Session 1A: Schumpeter's Legacy

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Antonio Almodovar, CEMPRES - Faculdade de Economia, Universidade do Porto

Patrick Eparvier, Université Lyon 2

“Disorder in Schumpeter's legacy”

Discussant: Mario G. Moura, CEMPRES -- Faculdade de Economia, Universidade do Porto

Alexander Ebner, Faculty of Economics, Law and the Social Sciences, University Erfurt

“Entrepreneurship and Economic Organization: The Historicist Legacy”

Discussant: Yuichi Shionoya, Hitotsubashi University, Japan

Mario G. Moura and Antonio Almodovar, CEMPRES -- Faculdade de Economia, Universidade do Porto

“Schumpeter and Adam Smith on the sociological framework of a market economy”

Discussant: Laurence S. Moss, Babson College

Session 1B: The Market and the State

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver

Kirk White, Duke University

Inequality and the Case for Redistribution: Aristotle to Sen

Veronica Grembi, University of Florence

The Actual Role of Ronald Coase's and Guido Calabresi's Contributions to the New Law and Economics

Session Discussant: Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver

Session 1C: Scandinavian Themes

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Mauro Boianovsky, Universidade de Brasilia

Mauro Boianovsky, Universidade de Brasilia and Hans-Michael Trautwein, Oldenburg University

Lindahl on Inflation Acceleration and Unemployment

Discussant: Perry Mehrling, Barnard College, Columbia University

Ariane and Julien Dupont, GRESE - University of Paris I Pantheon - Sorbonne

Lindahl and Frisch: National Accounting as the Empirical Interface of Their

Discussant: Muriel Dal-Pont, University of Nice - CNRS

Michel Bellet and A. Zouache, CREUSET

Monetary Policy Rules: The Swedish Connection

Discussant: Mauro Boianovsky, Universidade de Brasilia

Session 1D: Late Nineteenth Century Philosophy and Political Economy

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: James Wible, University of New Hampshire

James Wible, University of New Hampshire

Peirce's Essays on Pragmatism and the Economics of Cournot and Jevons

Discussant: Philippe Le Gall, University of Angers, France

Philippe Le Gall, University of Angers, France

"The Philosophical Foundations of Cournot's Modeling: The Law of Sales as 'Natural Econometrics'"

Discussant: Harro Maas, University of Amsterdam

Stephen Meardon, Inter-American Development Bank

Postbellum Protection and Commissioner Wells's Conversion to Free Trade

Discussant: James Wible, University of New Hampshire

Session 1E: Dissent and Controversy in Post WWII Economics

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Mary Morgan, London School of Economics

Cristel De Rouvray, London School of Economics

Degrees of Disagreement: From 'Quantitative Economic History' to 'Cliometrics'

Frederic S. Lee, University of Missouri-Kansas City

To Be A Heterodox Economist: The Contested Landscape of American Economics, 1960s & 1970s

Tiago Mata, London School of Economics
When the History of Economics Constructs Identities: The Post Keynesians, the Keynesian Revolution, and the Capital Controversies

Roger E. Backhouse, University of Birmingham
Dissent and Controversy: Categories and Problems

Session 2: 10:15AM – 11:45AM, Saturday July 5

Session 2A: Early Twentieth Century Economic Thought

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Malcolm Rutherford, University of Victoria

Midori Wakamori, Tokyo Metropolitan University
Macgregor, Robertson, and Clay on Combination, Unemployment, and Control of Industry.

Discussant: Katia Caldari, University of Padua

Antonio Almodovar, University of Porto
Aren't We Forgetting Something? Corporatism as Twentieth-Century Economic Thought.

Discussant: Marco Guidi, University of Pisa

Torsten Schmidt, University of New Hampshire
Discontinuities in the Analysis of Market Leadership
Discussant: Jean-Sebastien Lenfant, GRESE Paris 1

Pedro Teixeira, University of Exeter/University of Porto
Loose Ends--The Various Uses of Human Capital Theory in the Early 20th Century
Discussant: Thomas Leonard, Princeton University

Session 2B: Exchange at the Boundaries -- Ethical, Psychological, and Social Border Crossings in Economics

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Esther-Mirjam Sent, University of Notre Dame

Adam Lutzker, University of Michigan-Flint Agency and Constraint in Economic and Social Theory: Comparing Sen, Folbre, and Piore

Discussant: John Davis, Marquette University and University of Amsterdam

Masanobu Sato, Otsuki City College
J. M. Clark and F. H. Knight on the Psychological and Ethical Foundations of Economics
Discussant: Ross Emmett, Michigan State University

Session 2C: Keynesian and Post Keynesian Issues I

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Giuseppe Fontana, University of Leeds

Giuseppe Fontana, University of Leeds
Hicks on Monetary Theory and History: Money as Endogenous Money
Discussant: Perry Mehrling, Barnard College, Columbia University

Takashi Yagi, Gunma University
The Reswitching Debate Revisited
Discussant: Avi Cohen, York University

Goulven Rubin, PHARE-CNRS, Nantes University
Patinkin and the Pigou effect or How a Keynesian Adopted an Anti-Keynesian
Discussant: Mauro Boianovsky, Universidade de Brasilia

Guido Giacomo Preparata, University of Washington
On the Art of Innuendo: J.M. Keynes's Plagiarism of S. Gesell
Discussant: Ingrid Rima, Temple University

Session 2D: Late Georgian Responses to Classical Political Economy

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Harro Maas, University of Amsterdam

James P. Henderson, Valparaiso University
Avaunt this Economic Rage! William Wordsworth's Critique of Political Economy
Discussant: William Coleman, University of Cambridge

Chikakazu Tadakoshi, Yokohama City University
Whately's View on Political Economy in Comparison with Dugald Stewart
Discussant: Salim Rashid, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

Harro Maas, University of Amsterdam
William Whewell and the Black Arts of Induction
Discussant: James Henderson, Valparaiso University

William Sockwell, Berry College
George Grote's Political Economy Papers
Discussant: Annie Cot, University of Paris 1, Sorbonne

Session 2E: Modern Interpretations of J. A. Schumpeter

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Laurence S. Moss, Babson College

Mark Perlman, University of Pittsburgh

“Evolution of Schumpeter’s Methodology and Methodologies”

Discussant: Richard Arena, University of Nice – Sophia Antipolis

Yuichi Shionoya, Hitotsubashi University, Japan

“Scope and Method of Schumpeter’s Universal Social Science: Economic Sociology, Instrumentalism and Rhetoric”

Discussant: Harald Hagemann, Universitat Hohenheim

Alexander Ebner (University of Erfurt)

“From the Social Question to the Social Market Economy:
A Conceptual Reconstruction”

Discussant: Neil Hart, University of Western Sydney

HES Executive Committee Lunch: 11:45AM – 1:00PM

Place: East Duke Union

Plenary Session I: 1:00PM – 2:00PM, Saturday July 5

Room: White Lecture Hall

Chair: Craufurd D. W. Goodwin, Duke University

Warren G. Samuels, Michigan State University

“The Use of the Concept of the Invisible Hand”

Discussants:

Anthony Waterman, University of Manitoba

Jerry Evensky, Syracuse University

Session 3: 2:15PM – 3:45PM, Saturday July 5

Session 3A: Adam Smith and Labor

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Peter Dooley, University of Saskatchewan

Warren J. Samuels and Willie Henderson, Michigan State University
The Etiology of Adam Smith's Division of Labor: Alternative Accounts
Discussant: Peter Dooley

Peter Dooley, University of Saskatchewan
Francis Hutcheson on the Division of Labor
Discussant: Warren J. Samuels, Michigan State University

Sumitra Shah, St. John's University
Sexual Division of Labor in Adam Smith's Work
Discussant: Nimai Mehta, George Mason University

Nimai Mehta, George Mason University
Productive versus Unproductive Labor: Return to a Smithean Perspective
Discussant: Glenn Hueckel, Pomona College

Session 3B: Language, Literature & Conversation

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Tony Aspromourgos, University of Sydney

Tony Aspromourgos, University of Sydney
“History of Political Economy as History of Economic Vocabulary”
Discussant: Esther-Mirjam Sent, University of Notre Dame

Arjo Klamer, Erasmus University Rotterdam
“Economics is a conversation, or even better, a bunch of conversations”
Discussant: Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver

Evelyn Forget, University of Manitoba
“The peculiar process of creating a life: (auto)biographical reflections in the history of economic thought”
Discussant: E. Roy Weintraub, Duke University

Session 3C: Issues in Business Cycles

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Derek Brown, Duke University

Michael Assous, University of Paris IX Dauphine

"Kalecki's Unemployment Equilibrium: an Interpretation of his 1934 Article 'Three Systems'"

Discussant: Harald Hagemann, Hohenheim University

Harald Hagemann, Hohenheim University and Mauro Boianovsky, Universidade de Brasilia

Technical Change, Real Wages & Employment: From Wicksell to Neisser & Lederer

Discussant: Avi Cohen, York University

Muriel Dal-Pont, University of Nice - CNRS

The Growth-Cycles Dichotomy: origins & consequences on the development of macroeconomics

Discussant: Abdallah Zouache, Creuset, Saint-Etienne, France

Session 3D: Themes in Austrian Economics

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Bruce Caldwell, UNC-Greensboro

Chikako Nakayama, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

The Theoretical Interaction between Oskar Morgenstern and Frank Knight

Discussant: Hansjoerg Klausinger, Vienna University of Economics and Business

Keith Jakee, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology

Paper Title: A Note on the Normative Bias in Entrepreneurial Theory

Discussant: Yuichi Shionoya, Hitotsubashi University, Japan

Session 3E: Neither Mainstream nor Heterodox

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Hamid Hosseini, King's College

Hamid Hosseini, King's College

An Application of Behavioral Economics: Leibenstein's X-Efficiency and the L

Discussant: Mary Wrenn, Colorado State Univ.

Francis Clave, Cedimes Paris II

Walter Lippman and Neoliberalism

Discussant: Steven Meardon, Inter-American Development Bank

Mark Figueroa, University of West Indies, Jamaica
Paper Title: W. Arthur Lewis' Legacy: Industrial or Agricultural Development
Discussant: Thomas Ross, King's College

Mary Wrenn and Laura Taylor, Colorado State University
Social Capital in the Social Sciences
Discussant: Hamid Hosseini, King's College

Session 4: 4:15PM – 5:30PM, Saturday July 5

Session 4A: Economic Measurement and Policy in the 1940s

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Judy L. Klein, Mary Baldwin College

Mark Guglielmo, University of Chicago
The Role of Economists in World War II
Discussant: Craufurd Goodwin, Duke University

Judy L. Klein, Mary Baldwin College
Le Jeu des Reservoirs and Optimal Inventory Policy in Post World War II France and the US
Discussant: Philippe Le Gall, University of Angers, France

Session 4B: Hayek

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Bruce Caldwell, UNCG

Jack Bladel, UNC-G
Against Polanyi-centrism: Hayek and the Re-emergence of "Spontaneous Order"
Discussant: Phil Mirowski

William Christie, George Mason University
Hayek's The Sensory Order in Light of Modern Perceptual Neuro-Science
Discussant: Phil Mirowski

Session 4C: Marshallian Economics

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: John Whitaker, University of Virginia

Richard Arena, University of Nice-Sophia-Antipolis
On the relation between economics and sociology: Marshall and Schumpeter
Discussant: Neil Hart

Neil Hart, University of Western Sydney
"The 1920s Cost Controversies and the Demise of Marshall's Principles"
Discussant: Michel Quéré

Jean-Luc Gaffard and Michel Quéré, Institut Universitaire de France and CNRS-IDEFI
Co-ordination, Time and Equilibrium in Marshall's Analysis
Discussant: Richard Arena

Session 4D: Political Economy in Parliament in the 19th and Early 20th Centuries

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Marco E. L. Guidi, University of Pisa.

Marco E.L. Guidi and Massimo M. Augello, University of Pisa
Political economy in Parliament from the Unification of Italy to the rise of Discussant: Bradley Bateman, Grinnell College

José Luis Cardoso, Technical University of Lisbon, Portugal
Economic and financial parliamentary debates in nineteenth century Portugal
Discussant: Harald Hagemann, Universität Hohenheim

Michalis Psalidopoulos and Adamantios Syrmaloglou, Panteion University, Athens,
Greece
Fiscal and monetary policy in Greek parliament, 1864-1910
Discussant: Marco Guidi, University of Pisa

Session 4E: Theory in the Postwar Era

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Thomas C. Leonard, Princeton University

Robert Goldfarb, George Washington University and Thomas C. Leonard, Princeton University
Inequality of What among Whom? Rival Distribution Concepts in the 20th Century
Discussant: Malcolm Rutherford, University of Victoria

Esther-Mirjam Sent, University of Notre Dame
Mathematical Verbiage as a Witch Doctor's Incantation? H.A. Simon vs. the mathematics community
Discussant: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound

Duke University Press Reception: 5:30PM-6:30PM

Place: East Duke Building

Drinks and canapés

Sunday July 6, 2003

Session 5: 8:30AM – 9:45AM Sunday, July 6

Session 5A: The political economy of sympathy

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Sandra Peart, Baldwin-Wallace College

Sandra Peart, Baldwin-Wallace College and David Levy, George Mason University “Sympathy and its discontents”

Evelyn Forget, University of Manitoba

“Evocations of sympathy: sympathetic imagery in 18th century social theory”

Lauren Brubaker, University of Notre Dame

“Nature needs help: the ambiguous nature of natural sympathy (in Adam Smith)”

Session Discussants: Eric Schliesser, Wesleyan University; and Leon Montes, Universidad Adolfo Ibañez

Session 5B: Economic Thought and Economic Policy in the 20th Century

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Hansjoerg Klausinger, Vienna University of Economics and Business

Hansjoerg Klausinger, Vienna University of Economics and Business

'Misguided monetary messages': The case of Austria, 1929-1934

Discussant: Frank Steindl, Oklahoma State University

Masazumi Wakatabe, Waseda University

'The lost thirteen years': The return to the gold standard controversy in Japan, 1919-1932

Discussant: Robert Dimand, Brock University

Michalis Psalidopoulos, Panteion University of Political and Social Sciences

Economic thought and Greek post-war reconstruction (1944-1953)
Discussant: Hansjoerg Klausinger, Vienna University of Economics and Business

Session 5C: Keynesian and Post Keynesian Issues II

Room: Carr 135

Chair: James C. W. Ahiakpor, California State University, Hayward

Abdallah Zouache, Creuset, Saint-Etienne, France
The Question of Microfoundations in the Hayek-Keynes Controversy
Discussant: James C.W. Ahiakpor, California State University, Hayward

Mario Gomez Olivares, ISEG/UTL, Lisbon, Portugal
Risk, Uncertainty, and Expectation as Language Game Categories
Discussant: Tony Aspromourgos, University of Sydney

James C.W. Ahiakpor, California State University, Hayward
On the Future of Keynesian Economics: Struggling to Sustain a Dimming Light
Discussant: Giuseppe Fontana, University of Leeds

Kepa M. Ormazabal, University of the Basque Country
Paper Title: A Contradiction in Keynes's Definition of Income
Discussant: Mario Gomez Olivares, ISEG/UTL, Lisbon, Portugal

Session 5D: Ethical Considerations in Economic Theory

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Justin A. Elardo, Marygrove College

Justin A. Elardo, Marygrove College and Chace Stiehl, University of Utah
"Ethics and Economics: Amartya Sen's Encounter with the Other Horn of J.S. Mill's Dilemma"
Discussant: John Davis, University of Amsterdam and Marquette University

Sandrine Potulny, University Paris 2
"New Perspectives on Contemporary Normative Economic Theory: Prospects of T. Nagel's Moral Theory"
Discussant: Alex Viskovatoff, University of Pittsburgh

Julian Reiss, CPNSS
"Counterfactuals and Causal Laws in Economic Policy Making"
Discussant: Margaret Schabas, University of British Columbia

Session 5E: History of Economics and Economic History

Room: Carr 243

Chair: James Henderson, Valparaiso University

Yasunori Fukagai, Tokyo Metropolitan University

Early 19th Century British Economic Thought on Empire, Colony and the Gold Standard -- Bentham, Chalmers, Ricardo, Torrens and Whately

Discussant: James Henderson, Valparaiso University

Katia Caldari, University of Padua

Marshall's Critical Analysis of Scientific Management

Discussant: James Henderson, Valparaiso University

Mary S. Morgan, LSE

Ricardo and Model Farming

Discussant: William Sockwell, Berry College

Session 6: 10:15AM - 11:45PM Sunday, July 6

Session 6A: Methodology

Room: Carr 135

Chair: John Davis, University of Amsterdam and Marquette University

Fabienne Peter, University of Basel

Towards a Behavioral Economics of Science?

Discussant: Julien Reiss, CPNSS

Alex Viskovatoff, University of Pittsburgh

Neo-Transcendental Foundations for Economics

Discussant: Julien Reiss, CPNSS

John Hart, University of Natal, South Africa

The Knight-Hutchison exchange of 1940-1: a reappraisal

Discussant: Nicola Giocoli, University of Pisa

John Davis, University of Amsterdam and Marquette University

Game theory's conception of the economic agent

Discussant: Nicola Giocoli, University of Pisa

Session 6B: The evolution and diffusion of neoclassical economics and policy analysis

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Spencer Banzhaf, Resources for the Future

Marion Gaspard, Grese, University Paris I, Paris
Individual Behaviors and Collective Welfare: Ramsey's Theory of Saving
Discussant: Kirk White, Duke University

Ivan Moscati, Bocconi University, Milan
The strange case of Mr. Johnson: A note on Johnson's acquaintance with Pareto's Work
Discussant: Kirk White, Duke University

Giovanni Pavanelli, Universita' di Torino
The Early Reception and Diffusion of Irving Fisher's Work in Italy
Discussant: Christian Weber, Seattle University

Spencer Banzhaf, Resources for the Future
Consumer Surplus, with and without Apology
Discussant: Christian Weber, Seattle University

Session 6C: Money and Finance

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Perry Mehrling, Barnard College, Columbia University

Neil Skaggs, Illinois State University
The Real Bills Doctrine from Smith to Sargent: A Revisionist History
Discussant: Perry Mehrling, Barnard College, Columbia University

David Hammes, University of Hawaii--Hilo and Douglas Wills, University of Washington-Tacoma
Tom Edison and His Amazing Monetary Theory
Discussant: Robert Dimand, Brock University

Franck Jovanovic, Universite de Paris 1, Pantheon-Sorbonne
Fama's Work during the 1960s on the history of financial theory
Discussant: Philip Mirowski, University of Notre Dame

Perry Mehrling, Barnard College, Columbia University
From Treynor to Black, from CAPM to Black-Scholes, and Beyond
Discussant: Goulven Rubin, PHARE-CNRS, Nantes University

Session 6D: J. B. Say I: the classical economist

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Evert Schoorl, Groningen University

Petur Jonsson, Fayetteville State University
Say vs. Malthus on Productive and Unproductive Consumption
Discussant: Steven Kates, Australian National University

Steven Kates, Australian National University
Say's Law and the Modern Economy
Discussant: Evert Schoorl, Groningen University

Maria de Fátima Brandão, Porto University, Portugal
Industry and Market in Say's Traité
Discussant: Petur Jonsson , UNC-Fayetteville

Teaching Workshop I (Closed Session):

Room: Carr 240

"Variations on a Theme -- Many Ways to Teach the History of Economics"

Avi Cohen
Jerry Evensky
Sherry Kasper
Wade Hands
Craufurd Goodwin
Mary Morgan

Session 7: 1:00PM – 2:15PM Sunday, July 6

Session 7A: Young Scholars I -- Economics in the Contemporary World

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Sandra Peart, Baldwin-Wallace College

Jean Guillaume Forand, University of Quebec at Montreal
"A Debate in the Foundations of Game Theory"
Discussant: Nicola Giocoli, University of Pisa

Thomas Scheiding, University of Notre Dame
"A History of Print Journals in Economics"
Discussant: David Levy, George Mason University

Shauna Saunders, Duke University
"The Case for the National Endowment for the Arts"
Discussant: Robert Goldfarb, George Washington University

Session 7B: Roundtable: Historiography of Institutionalism

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: Dan Hammond, Wake Forest University

Malcolm Rutherford, University of Victoria
Ross B. Emmett, Michigan State University
Warren J. Samuels, Michigan State University
Brad Bateman, Grinnell College
Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver

Session 7C: Adam Smith Plus: Ethics, economics, and classical monetary theory

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Jeffrey Young, St. Lawrence University

Jeffrey Young, St. Lawrence University and Amos Witztum, London Guildhall University
Ethics and Power in Adam Smith
Discussant: Anthony Waterman, University of Manitoba

Amos Witztum, London Guildhall University
Unintended Consequences and Individual Responsibility
Discussant: Anthony Waterman, University of Manitoba

Edd Noell, Westmont College
Smith and a 'living wage': Tracing the legacy of scholasticism
Discussant: Jonathan Wight, University of Richmond

Session 7D: 19th Century Economic Doctrines: European or Universal?

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Stewart Davenport, Pepperdine University

Stewart Davenport, Pepperdine University
Mr. Smith Goes to Washington: Making Political Economy Safe for the Christian Republic, 1820-1860
Discussant: Spencer Banzhaf, Resources for the Future

Juan Pablo Couyoumdjian, George Mason University
Hiring a Foreign Expert: Chile in the 19th Century
Discussant: Stephen Meardon, Inter-American Development Bank

José-Luis Cardoso and Carlos Bastien, Technical University of Lisbon
Institutionalism, corporatism and the theory of the firm
Discussant: Stephen Meardon, Inter-American Development Bank

Session 7E: Slutsky, Integrability, Complementarity, and All That

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound

Jean-Sebastien Lenfant, GRESE Paris 1

"Slutsky and Complementarity"

Discussant: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound

Christian Weber, Seattle University

"Slutsky, Introspection, and Auspitz-Lieben-Edgeworth-Pareto Complementarity

Discussant: Jean-Sebastien Lenfant, GRESE Paris 1

Kyu Sang Lee & Philip Mirowski, University of Notre Dame

"Integrating Integrability into the Laboratory"

Discussant: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound

Teaching Session II (closed session):

Room: Carr 240

"Spicing Up Your Course -- Interesting Assignments, Seminal Articles"

Avi Cohen

Jerry Evensky

Sherry Kasper

Judy Klein

Neil Skaggs

Glenn Hueckel

Session 8: 2:30PM – 4:00PM Sunday, July 6

Session 8A: John von Neumann's contribution to modern economics: a centenary assessment

Room: West Duke 108B

Chair: E. Roy Weintraub, Duke University

Robert Leonard, University of Quebec at Montreal

"Between stability and revolution: ethics, psychology and von Neumann's game theory, 1937-1944"

Salim Rashid, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
“John von Neumann and scientific method”

Phil Mirowski, University of Notre Dame
“Automata theory of markets: machines that sell vs. machines who think”

Nicola Giocoli, University of Pisa
"Do prudent agents play lotteries? von Neumann's contribution to the theory of rational behavior"

Session 8B: Adam Smith in Context

Room: Carr 135

Chair: Paul Oslington, University of NSW/ ADFA

Margaret Schabas, University of British Columbia
“Adam Smith's Debts to Nature”

Arild Saether, Agder University College, Norway
“Samuel Pufendorf - Adam Smith's Most Important Source”

Francis Clave, CEDIMES, France
“Smith, Condillac and the Notion of System”

Paul Oslington, University of NSW/ADFA
“Economics as Natural Theology: A Reading of Smith, Malthus and Followers”

Session 8C: J. B. Say II: modern reappraisals

Room: Carr 137

Chair: Evert School, Groningen University

Kayoko Misaki, Shiga University, Japan
Say and Walras: the French Tradition
Discussant: Evert School

Ingrid Rima, Temple University
J.B. Say's Entrepreneur and capitalist-type economies
Discussant: Kayoko Misaki, Shiga University, Japan

Stephan Hopp, Bamberg University
The coordination of economic activity in Say's Traité
Discussant: Ingrid Rima, Temple University

Evert Schoorl, Groningen University
Producer, Consumer, Citizen: Say's Economic Agent
Discussant: Stephan Hopp, Bamberg University

Session 8D: Depression Economics and Postwar Reconstruction

Room: West Duke 101

Chair: Kevin D. Hoover, Univ. of California at Davis

Ramesh Chandra, University of Strathclyde
The January 1932 Memorandum on Anti-Depression Policies Revisited
Discussant: James C.W. Ahiakpor, California State Univ. Hayward

James M. Boughton, International Monetary Fund
New Light on Harry Dexter White
Discussant: Craufurd D. W. Goodwin, Duke University

Roger Sandilands, University of Strathclyde
The Lauchlin Currie Papers at Duke University: A Review of their Significance
Discussant: Craufurd D. W. Goodwin, Duke University

Session 8E: Young Scholars II: Civic Discourse in Steuart, Hume and Smith

Room: Carr 243

Chair: Sandra Peart, Baldwin-Wallace College

Aida Ramos, University of Notre Dame
A critical reappraisal of Sir James Steuart

Eric Schliesser, Wesleyan University
The "Uncommon" Road of a Subtle and Refined Thinker; Hume's methods

Leon Montes, Universidad Adolfo Ibañez
Of the Character of Virtue in Adam Smith

Discussants: Jeffrey Young, St. Lawrence University and Maria Pia Pagenelli, Yeshiva University

Teaching Session III (closed session):

Room: Carr 240

"Writing Across the Curriculum and Critical Skills in a History of Economics Course"

Avi Cohen
Jerry Evensky
Sherry Kasper
Bruce Caldwell
Wade Hands
Warren Samuels
Brad Bateman
Bo Sockwell

4:00-4:45 PM -- Teaching Session IV (closed session):

Room: Carr 240

"Questions and Answer Wrap-Up"

Presidential Address: 6:00PM – 7:00 PM

Place: Ballroom, Millennium Hotel

Kevin D. Hoover, University of California, Davis

"Lost Causes"

Reception: 7:00PM – 7:30PM

Place: Mezzanine, Millennium Hotel

Cash Bar

HES Banquet: 7:30PM – 9:30PM

Place: Ballroom, Millennium Hotel

Fee Event

Monday July 7, 2003

Session 9: 8:30AM – 10:15AM Monday, July 7

Session 9A: Explorations in the Early History of Economics

Place: Museum 103

Chair: William Coleman, University of Cambridge

Carl Wennerlind, Barnard College

Credit-Money as the Philosopher's Stone: Alchemy and the Coinage Problem

Discussant: Larry Moss, Babson College

Sasan Fayazmanesh, California State University, Fresno

Aristotle's "Money" and "Exchange"

Discussant: Tony Aspromourgos, University of Sydney

Tom Ross, King's College

Faction, Government and Economics

Discussant: Sasan Fayazmanesh, California State University, Fresno

William Coleman, University of Cambridge

The Founding Father of Anti-Economics: Simon-Nicholas-Henri Linguet

Discussant: Evelyn Forget, University of Manitoba

Session 9B: American, Spanish and Russian thought in the 19th century: Comparative perspectives

Place: Museum 116

Chair: Michalis Psalidopoulos, Panteion University

Yoshihiro Yamazaki, Fukuoka University

F.A. Walker and a non neutral progress of technology

Discussant: Takashi Yagi, Gunma University

Juan Zabalza, University of Alicante and Jesús Astigarraga, University of Zaragoza

Political economy entries in Spanish dictionaries and Encyclopaedias

Discussant: Marco Guidi, University of Pisa

Alla Sheptun, Finance Academy, Moscow

German Historical Schools and Russian economic thought

Discussant: Michalis Psalidopoulos, Panteion University

Annie Cot, University of Paris I, Sorbonne

The golden door and the immigration debate In the U.S. at the beginning of

Discussant: Sandra Peart, Baldwin Wallace

Session 9C: A Hume Sampler

Place: West Duke 108B

Chair: Glenn Hueckel, Pomona College

Robert Dimand, Brock University
David Hume on Canadian Paper Money

Robert Mankin, University of Paris 7
Can Jealousy be Reduced to a Science? Politics and Economics in Hume's Essays

Maria Pia Paganelli, Yeshiva University
David Hume and Endogenous Money

Matias Vernengo, Kalamazoo College
Hume and Hamilton on Public Credit

Jeffrey Young, St. Lawrence University
The Humean Foundations of Adam Smith's Theory of Property

Plenary Session 2: 10:30AM – 11:30AM Monday, July 7

Place: White Lecture Hall

Chair: E. Roy Weintraub, Duke University

Nicholas Dawidoff, author of The Fly Swatter
“The Gerschenkron Effect: Messages From The Master”

HES Business Meeting: 11:30AM – 12:30PM

Place: White Lecture Hall