

1/3/2016	Becoming Applied: The Transformation of Economics after 1970
1/3/2016	Ruling the Market: Neoliberal Reasoning in Germany and Beyond
1/3/2016	200 Years of Women Economists (Co-Hosted with CSWEP)
1/4/2016	Public Choice: Origins and Perspectives
1/3/2015	Keynes and Keynesian Economics in Light of the Financial Crisis
1/3/2015	Histories of Behavioral Economics
1/4/2015	Shakespeare and Economics
1/4/2015	SARAH SKWIRE (Liberty Fund) Shakespeare's Economic Seductions
1/4/2015	FREDERICK TURNER (University of Texas-Dallas) Use and Time in Shakespeare's Sonnets
1/4/2015	MARC SHELL (Harvard University) Language, Money, Shakespeare
1/4/2015	DEIRDRE N. MCCLOSKEY (University of Illinois-Chicago) Shakespeare v. the Bourgeoisie
1/4/2015	History of Discrimination in Economics
1/3/2014	Market Failure in Context
1/4/2014	Experiments in Economics: Historical and Methodological Perspectives
1/4/2014	Financial Crises and Their Resolution in the History of Economic Thought
1/4/2014	New Perspectives on Malthus: What Was He Really Saying about Population Growth and Human Societies?
1/4/2013	Real Business Cycles after Three Decades: Past, Present and Future
1/4/2013	Keynes and the International Monetary System: The Centennial of Keynes (1913)
1/4/2013	Writing MIT's History (joint with AEA)
1/5/2013	Looking for Best Practices in Economic Journalism: Past and Present
1/6/2012	David Hume on Normative Economics
1/6/2012	The History of Financial Economics: A Session in Memory of Peter Bernstein (joint with AFA)
1/7/2012	Reflecting on Twenty-Five Years of the Economic Science Association (joint with ESA)
1/7/2012	Chicago and Democracy
1/7/2011	The Histories of Scientific Observation in Economics
1/7/2011	Rational Expectations, Retrospect and Prospect: On the 50th Anniversary of John Muth's "Rational Expectations and the Theory of Price Movements"
1/8/2011	Irving Fisher and Modern Economics: 100 Years after the Purchasing Power of Money (joint with AEA)
1/8/2011	Selling Economics to the Foundations
1/3/2010	The Integration of Micro- and Macroeconomics from a Historical Perspective
1/3/2010	Complexity in the History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
1/4/2010	100 Years of Walras's Death
1/4/2010	Financial Crises and the History of Economic Thought
1/3/2009	The Role of Oral History in the Study of Economics
1/3/2009	Theory of Moral Sentiments after 250 Years
1/4/2009	The Real Debate of the 1950's: Marshallian versus General Equilibrium Approaches

1/4/2009	Growth Theory in Historical Perspective
1/4/2008	What Was/Is Financial Economics? (joint with AFA)
1/4/2008	Keeping the Faith: The Continuing Engagement of Economics with Religion
1/5/2008	Thorstein Veblen at 150: Rethinking a Survivor (joint with AFEE)
1/5/2008	Rawls and the Economists
1/5/2007	The Nature and Significance of Economic Science: Robbins' Essay, 75 Years On
1/5/2007	Adam Smith as Theologian
1/6/2007	Chicago Economics in Historical and Philosophical Perspective
1/6/2007	Great Ideas for Teaching the History of Economic Thought
1/6/2006	Mathematics, Econometrics and the History of Contemporary Economics
1/6/2006	Keynes General Theory After Seventy Years
1/7/2006	The Postwar Origins of the Chicago School (60 Years On)
1/7/2006	Buchanan and Hayek on the Constitutional Order
1/7/2005	Economics and Philosophy of Mind I: Neuroeconomics, Rationality, and Externalism
1/8/2005	Using Writing Across the Curriculum in the History of Economics Course (Roundtable)
1/8/2005	Cowles from Chicago to Yale: A Session Making the 50th Anniversary of the Move of the Cowles Commission from Chicago to Yale
1/8/2005	Complexity, Pluralism, and the Future of Economics
1/3/2004	Improving the Race: Darwinism and Economics a Century Ago
1/3/2004	Re-making the Boundaries of Economics in the 20th Century
1/4/2004	Lost Dimensions in Modern Micro-Macro Theory
1/4/2004	IS/LM: Past, Present and Future
1/3/2003	Dynamic Models in the Late Twentieth Century
1/3/2003	Alternative Accounts of the End of Globalization
1/4/2003	Postcolonialism and Economics
1/4/2003	Institutional and Chicago Economics
1/4/2002	Debating Analytical and Political Egalitarianism
1/4/2002	Non-Economic Objectives as a Study in the History of Economic Thought
1/4/2002	Keynes and General Equilibrium Theory
1/5/2002	The Makings of "Modern" Economics During the Cold War
1/5/2001	Contemporary Relevance of Classical Trade Theory
1/5/2001	Columbia University and American Economics: The Interwar Period and Beyond
1/6/2001	The 50's and 60's Carnegie Connections (Roundtable)
1/7/2001	Carnegie Connections of the 1950's and 1960's
1/7/2000	Extensions on Classical Political Economy
1/8/2000	Unconventional Economics
1/8/2000	Formal Expositions Along Austrian Themes in the History of Economics
1/8/2000	Emigre Economists in America: Their Impact and Their Experiences
1/3/1999	The Impact of RAND on Economics
1/4/1999	The History of Women in Economics
1/4/1999	Alfred Schutz and Economics: Exploring the Interface of Economics and Sociology
1/5/1999	Sraffa's Centenary
1/3/1998	Wicksell's Influence on Modern Economic Theory: In Honor of the 100th Anniversary of Interest and Prices

1/3/1998	Taxation, Rationality and Group Rationality
1/4/1998	Wesley Clair Mitchell after 50 Years (Roundtable)
1/4/1998	On the Road Again: The Influence of Travel and Travel Writing on Classical Political Economy
1/4/1997	Irving Fisher in Prospect and Retrospect
1/5/1997	Outside Variables as Determinants of Methodology
1/5/1997	Turning Points in Economics
1/5/1997	Game Theory in Historical Perspective (joint with AEA)
1/5/1996	Increasing Returns, Growth and Convergence: Progress versus Decay as Topics in the History of Economic Thought
1/6/1996	Marshallian Economists: Marshall, Knight, and Stigler
1/6/1996	The Development of Modern Monetary Thought
1/6/1996	Historical Perspectives on Contemporary Economics
1/6/1995	How Women View Economics and How Economists View Women (joint with IAFFE)
1/6/1995	Classical Economics
1/6/1995	Historical Perspectives on Mathematical Economics
1/7/1995	The Legacy of Ronald Coase: Essays on the Thirty-fifth Anniversary of "The Problem of Social Cost" (joint with AEA)
1/3/1994	Game Theory on the 50th Anniversary of von Neumann and Morgenstem's Theory of Games and Economic Behavior (joint with AEA)
1/3/1994	Economics and the History of Science
1/4/1994	Defining the Field of Economic Methodology in an Encyclopedia Project (Roundtable Discussion)
1/4/1994	Uncovering Lost Contributions: Insights from the Work of Early Women Economists (joint with IAFFE)
1/5/1993	The History of Women in Economics (joint with AEA)
1/5/1993	Realism and Economic Theory
1/5/1993	Marshall and Friedman: Artists or Scientists?
1/6/1993	Blaug's Methodological Appraisals of Heterodox Economic Theories (joint with URPE)
1/3/1992	Institutional Analysis in the History of Economics (joint with AEA)
1/3/1992	Issues in Classical Economics
1/3/1992	American Contributions to the History of Economics
1/4/1992	Methodology and Model Building
12/28/1990	The Contributions of Friedrich A. Hayek (joint with AEA)
12/29/1990	Historical Studies of Controversies in Econometrics
12/30/1990	Natural Science Influences in Early Neoclassical Economics
12/28/1989	How Has Outside Funding Affected the Course of Economic Research? (Panel Discussion)
12/28/1989	Alfred Marshall: One Hundred Years Later (joint with AEA)
12/29/1989	Economists, Theologians and Modern Economic Thought
12/30/1989	Emerging Heterodoxy in Economic Methodology
12/28/1988	Ethical Premises in Economic Thought (joint with AEA and ASE)
12/28/1988	Neoclassicism and Its Critics

12/29/1988	Analytical Marxism and Its Critics (joint with AEA)
12/30/1988	The French Revolution and Economic Thought
12/28/1987	Studies in Mathematics and Economic Analysis (joint with AEA)
12/29/1987	Studies in Economic Dynamics: Cycles and Growth
12/30/1987	Novel Features of the Chicago Tradition (joint with AEA)
12/28/1986	What Have We Learned About Technical Progress Since Ricardo's Machinery Case?
12/29/1986	Econometric Research and the Development of Economic Analysis (joint with AEA)
12/30/1986	Reflections on the Economics of the Swedish School (joint with AEA)
12/28/1985	American Economics Officially Turns 100 (joint with AEA)
12/29/1985	First Forays into the History of Economics (joint with AEA)
12/30/1985	Popper Among the Economists (joint with AEA)
12/28/1984	New Perspectives on H. H. Gossen, The Laws of Human Relations (1854) (joint with AEA)
12/28/1984	Malthus: 150 Years After His Death (joint with AEA)
12/30/1984	Origins and Predecessors of Modern United States Radical Political Economy (joint with AEA)
12/28/1983	Structural and Aggregative Methodologies in Historical Perspective (joint with AEA)
12/29/1983	Marxian Economics and the Economics of Karl Marx (joint with AEA)
12/29/1983	Classical and Neoclassical Monetary Economics (joint with AEA)
12/29/1982	Policy Issues in the History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
12/29/1982	Keynes-Marx Centennial, 1883-1983: Comparisons and Contrasts (joint with AEA)
12/30/1982	Philosophy and History of Economics (joint with AEA)
12/29/1981	Contributions to the History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
12/29/1981	Symposium on American Economics in the 1930's and 1940's: The Rise to World Leadership (joint with AEA)
12/30/1981	New Directions in the History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
9/5/1980	Macro-Micro Compatibility: Historical and Philosophical Aspects (joint with AEA)
9/6/1980	Contemporary Economics as a Chapter in the History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
9/6/1980	Recent Economists: Their Work and Their Legacy (joint with AEA)
12/29/1979	History of Economic Thought (joint with AEA)
12/29/1979	The Centennial of Henry George's Progress and Poverty (joint with AEA)
8/29/1978	More on Keynes (joint with AEA)
8/30/1978	On Neo-Classical Economics
8/31/1978	On Marx
12/28/1977	History of Economic Thought: The Interpretive Literature (I)
12/28/1977	History of Economic Thought: The Interpretive Literature (II)
12/29/1977	History of Economic Thought: The Interpretive Literature (III)
12/29/1977	History of Economic Thought: The Interpretive Literature (IV)